

Kirkby Stephen & District Walkers are Welcome
Walk Programme late Spring 2024

All our walks take 1 to 1.5 hours 2/3 miles

Suggested donation £1

<https://walkeden.org/> waw@uppereden.org

During May National Walking Month we will be programming walks in line with Walkers are Welcome Themed Events celebrating a named walk

<https://walkersarewelcome.org.uk/national-themed-events/>

As some of these routes are linear, there will be a bit of car jiggling.

Thursday 2nd May

Meet The Cloisters, Kirkby Stephen 10:30

Dawdles Walk with car share 7.6 miles

Lady Anne's Way Aisgill to Boggle Green

During May National Walking Month we will be programming walks in line with Walkers are Welcome Themed Events celebrating a named walk

<https://walkersarewelcome.org.uk/national-themed-events/>

A beautiful short linear section of this trail on the ancient Highway taking in Hellgill Force, The Watercut sculpture mainly downhill between Wild Boar Fell and Mallerstang Edge. Bring a snack to stop on route.

Thursday 9th May

Meet The Cloisters, Kirkby Stephen 10:30

Dawdles Walk

Lakes Field Walk by John Strutt Conservation Foundation

A brisk walk to Hartley village and a slower walk around this relatively new path part of the Nature Reserve with lakes, wild fowl, deer and wild flowers. Return walk to Kirkby Stephen for optional refreshment stop. Please note there can be standing water after rain.

Thursday 16th May

Meet The Cloisters, Kirkby Stephen 10:30

Dawdles Walk with car share 1.5m

Pennine Journey to Nateby

This is basically a charming walk from Kirkby Stephen to Nateby along ancient lanes. We will arrange for a refreshment stop at the Black Bull, Nateby.

Thursday 23rd May

Meet The Cloisters, Kirkby Stephen 10:30

Dawdles Walk with car share 2 miles

Coast to Coast Waitby to Kirkby Stephen

This week is a short section of the Coast to Coast from Waitby just as Coast to Coasters arrive into the town. Optional refreshments in Kirkby Stephen.

Thursday 30th May

Meet at The Cloisters, Kirkby Stephen 10:30

Dawdles Walk

Kirkby Stephen Poetry Path

Twelve short poems, written by poet Meg Peacocke, carved by lettering artist Pip Hall on blocks of stone installed at intervals either side of the River Eden. A year in the life of a hill farmer'. Allow extra time to read the poems together. Optional refreshments back in the town.